Two singles in the eighth gave the visitors one more tally, and after two men were out in the ninth inning. Shaffer scored on Cuddy's long drive to right field. This made the second run, and it was all that the Lawmakers could hang on to.

Moser's pliching won him the thirtenth game in rapid repetition. The official score is as follows:

SCHUMAN WON GAME.

Turned the Tables on Norfolk Most Effectively.

Most Effectively.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., June 8.—The Truckers, or rather Plicher Schuman, turned the tables on the Tercentennials most infectively to-day, beating them to the time of 5 to 0. Schuman was the complete master of the situation, ten of the heavy-hitting local aggregation stabbing the zephyr at his bidding, and the few hits he vouchsafed and the two passes he presented were so carefully distributed throughout the game that there could possibly be no connection between them. Another Schuman or two, provided they should always pitch as this Shuman pitched this afternoon, and State Senator Charles Bland would have a good big bunch of trouble to be passed to saval pliered the second sank and went to third a minute later. Reeve knowked one over the head of the second was man, and Richmond's slab worker put his spikes on the rubber for the first run.

Bowen started it in the fourth inning by sending a high one to Rose. Bently diplicated the swattling trick, and Anthony get under the sphere. Wilson sent one to Laval, who didn't handle it, and the player landed safely. Laval then made a balk and allowed the runner to take second, and Holt walted for a meal ticket.

Toman singled, scoring Wilson, and McKevett binsed one to left for two sacks, bringing Holt over. These two runs made it hard for Richmond to loop up.

Two ningles in the eighth gave the spin of the sound in the safe to school. Score:

a gallop with the Loudoun hounds in the morning and can refurn to Washington in time for the engagements of the evening has done much to popularise the locality.

Among hunting men who followed this match it was the unanimous ophion that no better country could have been found than that over which they followed the several packs during these exciting neets.

The country about Leesburg has been taken up in a great measure by inen of leisure, who find relief from the exacting duties of city life in the pursuit of the country. Among those who have large estates are William C. Eusis, well known in diplomatic circles in Washington, as well as in the saddle, in Iroland; A. S. Gillet, the president of the Country. SYSONBY IMPROVING: MAY BE WELL SOON

R. Keene Emphatic in Denial of Rumor That Great Horse Would be Shot.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEW YORK, June 9,—There is absolutely not a word of truth in the sensational story published last night that Sysonby, the greatest race horse in America, was so ill from a blood disease that he, as well as several other thoroughbreds in James R. Keene's stable, would have to be shot.

Mr. Keene and James R. Rowe, his trainer, denied in emphatic terms that Sysonby was so sick that he would have to be destroyed. Both men said that, far from being dangerously ill, Sysonby was much improved in health, and that he is still improving.

Rowe, at the Gravesend track, when told the story, said that Sysonby was eatling his full quota of oats daily and was doing as well as could be expected from a horse that had been very ill. His illness, he continued, had caused him to lose about seventy-five pounds of flesh, but, uside from this, the horse was not injured.

John W. Rogers, the trainer of Harry Payne Whitney's horses, told a friend yesterday that he did not believe Artful would be able to race this season. He confirmed the story that she had a "bowed tendon" and that this would probably keep her in retirement.
